

If you are a woman in the timber industry who is a decision maker, mentor, business owner or passionate about developing a national women in timber network we encourage you to book now to attend the upcoming:

Women's Leadership in the Timber Industry Seminar

10th November 2010 - 10.30am to 3pm

The Alto Room - The Langham One Southgate Avenue, Southbank, Melbourne

$132.00 per person (GST Inclusive)

The forum is a way of providing a different perspective to issues facing the whole timber industry. It is a way of providing development and ensuring that good women not only are attracted to our industry but choose our industry as a preferred place to work and build a career.

Speakers on the day will include: Karen Hayes , industry visionary Judy Tilling, and Lisa Marty from VAFI who has been appointed to the Department of Primary Industries Women's network representing women in the timber industry.

Guest Speaker: Karen Hayes Career Profile

Karen Hayes' vast general management and strategic consulting experience in Australasia, Canada, the United States and many European countries, primarily in the financial services and information technology industries, has lifted her into the top echelons of Australian business women.

Karen is the Director Corporate Engagement and Human Capital with UXC Limited. UXC is an ASX300 company which provides a market-leading portfolio of Information, Communication and Technology (ICT) products and services for medium and large entities in the private and public sectors across Australia and New Zealand.

She is a past finalist in the Telstra Business Woman of the Year Awards, has been on the Board for the Breast Cancer Network Australia since its inception in 1998 and was appointed to the Board of the Melbourne Football Club in 2006.
